"Tis Comfortable Enough at Home"

"Funny how long it takes some people to learn that—Home sweet home is becoming more and more comfortable every day."

"An outing is OK once in a while, but comfort at home with an electric fan, costs practically nothing—only three or four cents a day, and no bother at all to get it."

G-E Electric Fans are attachable to any incandescent electric lamp socket. We handle all sizes and styles—They are The Leaders of the Market.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
FORT SHAFTER, June 3.—The dinner at which Col. and Mrs. James A. Irons entertained on last Sunday night was a great success, and was much enjoyed by all present. The gracious host and hostess met their guests in the lobby of the hotel, and after laying aside wraps and hats in the dressing rooms provided, all gathered on the broad lanai until dinner was announced, when Col. Irons, with Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, led the way to the dining room where the beautiful table awaited them.

The table was in the shape of an "L" and was adorned with tall crystal vases filled with deep shaded pink asters, while sprays of crinkly ferns formed a circle around the vases and down the center of the table, with decorations here and there of the asters. The place cards added to the whole appearance, being dainty little Japanese maidens, holding fluttering parasols, pink for the men and blue for the ladies. Mrs. Irons was very handsome in a gown of blue-green charmeuse beaded in white.

After dinner the music by the Hawaiian orchestra was enjoyed. Col. and Mrs. Irons' guests were Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Cmdr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Clark, Mrs. Louis Clark of Pearl Harbor, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Lieut. Eugene A. Lohman, Capt. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hartshorn, Col. William Weigel, Col. Richard Croston, Mr. and Mrs. Case Deering, Col. and Mrs. William D. Kendall, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Lieut. Wallace C. Philson, Capt. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr., Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Maj. and Mrs. Frank C. Bolles, Lieut. Lester Baker, Miss Isabel Baker.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday entertained at noon-day dinner on Sunday for Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler.

Lieut. Edward C. Rose was the dinner guest of Dr. Harry M. Delber on Wednesday evening at the bachelors' mess.

Capt. Henry C. K. Muhlenberg was made happy when the mail arrived this week by receiving his commission, and is now a full-fledged captain. He is receiving the congratulations of his friends, who are now in hopes of a like occurrence for themselves in the near future.

Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett were dinner guests of Col. and Mrs. Lucius L. Duffee of the 33d Infantry on Friday evening, when they entertained at Schofield Barracks.

Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt were delightful host and hostess at the bridge club, which met on Tuesday evening. Maj. William B. Cochran was the lucky holder of the highest score and received the prize. Those playing were Lieut. Col. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran, Col. William Weigel, Mrs. Julia E. Lohman, Mrs. Charles A. Lewis, Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heidner, Mrs. Helen MacAdam, Mrs. Alden C. Knowles and Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt.

Mrs. Samuel J. Heidner gave a jolly little dinner on Tuesday evening for Mrs. Charles A. Lewis, Mrs. Claire R.

CARD OF THANKS.

I am deeply gratified at the kind attention and at the many gifts with which my friends honored me on the occasion of my leaving for China.

After thirty-two years of employment with the Inter-Island Steamship Company and a still longer stay in Honolulu I have decided that it would be fitting to spend a vacation in China. I shall, however, be glad to see my Honolulu friends upon my return in a few months.
